

RUSS STOLNACK

THE EXECUTIVE IMPOSTER

OPEN YOUR NEXT MEETING OR EVENT WITH A REAL SURPRISE

This Speaker is Literally Unreal

Intro. Applause. It's the new Executive G.M., The famous Boardroom Chef. The renowned V.P. of Product Design. He conveys corporate wisdom. Recounts witty company or industry anecdotes. But there's something funny about this new blue chip guy. Really funny.

And the audience finds itself becoming more involved, aware, open minded and creative than with the typical speaker.

That's because this guy is actually Executive Imposter Russ Stolnack.

A corporate and performance veteran with Six Emmy awards for writing and acting. He works with and speaks for organizations that want to kick off, close out, or just break the monotony of their next meeting or conference with a surprise! Open with a bang and then follow up with his proven, humorous presentation.

"I have an audience believing I'm a serious speaker, then make it obvious I'm not. They catch on and crack up!"

STAND APART, WITH A SPEAKER THAT IS CAPTIVATING, CORPORATE, CLEVER AND CLEAN. AND YOUR ATTENDEES WILL LEAVE WITH A VERY REAL IMPRESSION.

"...Not only is he extremely creative and funny; he is also a consummate professional. I would trust him to work with any type of crowd."

—Diana Clark, President; The Diana Clark Company
